3 Discussion

- Making the dissemination repository public
  In principle, there are no objections against a public repository. But, for some of the documents in the current repository (e.g., dissemination plan) visibility needs to be restricted to the openETCS community. Therefore, the repository will be extended with a private part before dissemination main part can be public.

- Defining a process/guideline for dissemination in the QA plan
  Publishing an item in openETCS needs some rules and guidance. Therefore a section will be added to the QA plan on how to publish in openETCS context.

- Referencing the project and funding authorities in publications
  In German publications the reference to funding authorities is mandatory. This detail will be part of the description in the QA plan. Peter will check whether similar rules apply for other partnering countries.
